Sir,

Have the honor to state that Survey numbers 76 and 77 measuring 130 and 28 guntas in the village of Gangewari, Taluk of Srirangapatna, formerly known as Tirumanna Shastri's tope was made over to the Sri Jagadheswara Swami temple at Tirumakudal for making use of the produce towards the Sri Raja Kalyanaram as per Government Order No 1287-7 dated 11th September 1901. An initial cost of Rs 35 has to be incurred to make land fit for wet cultivation

2. One Kalegowda Potel of the village says that if the land is leased out to him in perpetuity, he would pay annual gutha of 15 pallas of paddy and that he would himself bear the initial cost. But if on the other hand the land is leased out to him only for 10 years, he would pay an annual gutha of $13\frac{1}{2}$ pallas of paddy and that the initial cost should be borne by Government. The latter course seems to operate as it would secure the right of the tenant and avoid civil disputes.

3. The entire records connected with the case are herewith submitted for the consideration of Government.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
